The Great Result.

We received a despatch from Washington City, on Saturday, announcing that Illinois and Iowa had gone for Buchanan; and if this be correct, as we have every reason to believe it is, Mr. Buchanan's Electoral vote is 178-leaving 110 votes for Fremont, and 8 for Fillmore.

Under the circumstances, this is a noble majority. In the language of that sterling Democratic print, the New York News-

"The people have spoken, and their voice must be obeyed. The excitement, the doubts, the fears have all vanished, and the Democracy stand forth erec, proud and fearless, full of joy and exultation at the noble triumph secured, full of hope for the future stability and perpetuity of our glorious and much loved institutions. Never have we be liged to contend with so dangerous a foe. Never have such mighty consequences rested upon the works of a single day Never were the terminations of a day's labor of a great peo-ple so rejoiced over by every lover of liberty and independence as that of the 4th of November, 1856. We feel as if a heavy load were lifted from us—a dread of great but unknown dangers brushed away—until the silent, but all powerful ballot has pronounced us free and independent.

The ballot! 'Tis, in the hands of freemen, a weapon

-" that falls as still As snow-flakes on the silent sod, But executes a freeman's will

As lightning does the will of God." To Pennsylvania we can now and Illinois with her 6,000 DR 7,000: INDIANA, WHICH GOV. WRIGHT TELEGRAPHS TO US WILL REACH NEAR TO 15,000; TENNESSEE, WITH HER 6,000 AND KENTUUKY, WITH HER 5,000. We need no more, bu more we should have been glad to have seen on the side of the Constitution and the laws. But let us thank God, for

All honor and gratitude to those who, in the free States, have stood by us in this struggle, and aided in the great work of arresting the floods of fanaticism and sectional strife!

The New England States have voted against our Constitutional rights; but Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Indiana, and Illinois have stood by us, and thus saved the Republic. Pennsylvania is entitled especially to our thanks and gratitude. Nobly has she re-established her character as the "Key-stone of the federal arch." The prop osition to her own people, to unite with traitors and abolitionists against her own son, has been scouted and scorned; and she has rolled up for him from thirty to forty thousand majority.

"Great but unknown dangers" have been passed, and the Union, for the present at least, is safe. Our only hope for the future, as in the past, is in the national Democratic party. If it should be destroyed, or even defeated in a contest with the hosts of darkness-the black Republicans-we may bid farewell to peace, to safety, to the Constitution itself. "LET US THANK GOD, FOR HE HAS SAVED THE REPUBLIC."

How is it? Fusion or no Fusion?

The Raleigh Register of Wednesday last, publishes a letter from Mr. Fillmore, dated in July last, advising his supporters not to fuse with the Fremont men; and the Register adds-repeating the language of the Fillmore Committee of Pennsylvaniathat after reading this letter, if any of his friends still persist in supporting the so-called Union ticket, they are not sincere friends of the American candidates." We have before us the Philadelphia Times of Thursday last, containing one of Mr. Rayner's speeches in that city in favor of fusion; and while delivering this speech, Mr. Rayner read the following dispatch from Mr. Fillmore :

"Success would justify the union-our friends must judge for themselves."-MILLARD FILLMORE. How is this? Can the Register inform us? In July Mr. Fillmore is against fusion, as the following letter, above referred to, will show:

" BUEFALO, July 29, 1856. HENRY F. THOMAS, Esq.:

My Dear Sir-Your favor of the 25th is this moment received, and your course meets my hearty approval. While I should be glad to receive the support of all national Union men, by whatever name they may be, or may have been called, I am opposed to all bargaining, and especially with sectionalism, on any terms. Let us stand by the flag of our Union, and if we go down, let us go down with it flying at our masthead. I shall look out for no sectional plank on which to drift ashore.

I am, in great haste, truly yours,
MILLARD FILLMORE." In July, Mr. Fillmore is opposed to "all bargaining, especially with sectionalism"-in November, he thinks "success would justify" an alliance with the Black Republicans. In his Albany speech, in June last, Mr. Fillmore solemuly and emphatically declared that the success of the Fremont sectional party would destroy the Union; but in November, according to Mr. Rayner, he is ready to "bargain and unite with that party to defeat the Democrats. How is it? Is the Register willing to be silent while Mr. Fillmore is being injured and his reputation destroyed by the above dispatch read in Philadelphia by Mr. Rayner? Let us have an answer, There may be some mistake about the matter; and if so, let the public know it.

Kentucky.-What becomes of the declaration of the K. N. State Committee of Kentucky, that a list of voters had been made, and that Kentucky was certain for Fillmore by 10,000 majority. That State has gone just ten thousand the other way. Was the Committee deceived ?-or did they intend to deceive?-or did 10,000 Know Nothings break their oaths? In New York, too, it was stated, on high K. N. authority, that Mr. Fillmore's vote would be 170,000—the noses were all counted, and the vote could not be less. Yet Mr. Fillmore's vote in that State will not reach 120,000. Oh, "Sam!"

We repeat, again and again, we should like to know who those Raleigh slaveholders are, who advised Mr. Rayner to go to Philadelphia and advo- 11. John Fream, te a union between the Fillmore men and the Black Republicans.

RALEIGH AND GASTON ROAD.—We learn that at the meeting of the Directors of this Road, held in this City on Monday last, R. A. Hamilton, Esq., was re-elected President for the ensuing year.

Mr. Fillmore's Strength.

Those patriotic old line Whigs who went to Baltimore to elect Mr. Fillmore and save the Republic told the country that Mr. Buchanan was a sectional and Mr. Fillmore a national candidate. Let us see how this statement has been met by the people.

Mr. Fillmore has received just eight Electoral votes out of 296; and he has run behind the K. N. strength in all the Southern States. These eight votes were obtained-not honestly, not fairly, not by the peaceful exercise by freemen of the right of suffrage-but by threats, intimidation, and wholesale slaughter!-These eight votes are saturated with blood. - Seven or eight murdered men and boys, and seventy-five cruelly wounded in the City of Baltimore, will be the record which will go down to posterity as a part of the Know Nothing achievement which resulted in these eight votes. Know Nothingism began in secret, and got strength, and exulted in it for a season, by the strife which it engendered between races and religions; and it has made its first showing of Electoral votes in blood-the legitimate consequence of its doctrines and practices. But it is weak now in the free States, because black Republicanism absorbed it; and it was thus absorbed because its mem bers there, bitterly as they hated the naturalized citizen and the Catholic, hated the Southern slaveholder still more. Behold, then, the consequences of Know Nothingism as thus far revealed-feuds and fightings between races of men and strife among the followers of Christ!-blood, riot, and murder at the ballot-boxes in Baltimore, Louisville, and Ne# Orleans !- and black Republicanism and disunionism, in all their hideousness, in the free States! "By their fruits ye shall know them."

This national candidate, Mr. Fillmore, has received, for example, about 1,000 votes in Maine, about 300 in New Hampshire, about 300 in Vermont, about 3,000 in Connecticut, &c. This is his strength in the free States,-in that region of the Union where conservatism and nationality are most needed.

Yet there are Fillmore men in the free States who have exhibited in this contest a spirit of patriotism and nationality, which puts to the blush many of the Fillmore party in this section of the Union. We refer to those who, in the City of Boston, voted for Col-Greene for Congress against the abolitionist Comins; and to others, in the same city, who united with the Democrats in the effort to defeat Burlingame. Look, too, to that glorious gain for Buchanan in Philadelphia of fifteen thousand votes, rendering it certain that many Fillmore men, opposed to a fusion with the abolitionists, must have voted with the Democrats. It was in vain that Mr. Rayner harangued, and maligned the Democrats,-the more he talked for fusion the more firmly the honest and patriotic portion of the Fillmore men were fixed in their purpose to vote for Buchanan. They saw no chance for Mr. Fillmore-they would not fuse with Fremont. and so they cast their votes where they would tell for the Constitution and the Union.

Let us be told no more, therefore, about Mr. Fillmore's popularity or the nationality of "Sam's" party; and whenever you hear a Know Nothing boasting of the strength and the nationality of his faction, just remind him of the vote of Maryland and of Mr. Fillmore's 300 votes in Vermont.

The New York Times, one of the leading organs of Fremont, takes the following view of the Presidential Election:

"In New-England, New-York, Ohio, and the Western States generally, with the exception of Indiana, Fremont has run nobly. In this State his plurality will be over 40,000. The whole Republican State ticket is elected: sublicans have at least 90 of the 128 members of the Assembly, which secures them the United States Senato ed Hamilton Fish: -and they have 21 of the 33 Members of Congress. The Fremont majorities of the western and central counties are enormous. The American Party seems to have been very generally betrayed and de-serted by its leaders, and thousands of its members voted directly for Buchanan. The Fillmore vote of the will probably not exceed 120,000, in an aggregate of over half a million:—they have lost every Congressional Dis-trict,—and the only consolation the leaders of this party have left is in the reflection that they have given Pennsylvania to Mr. Buchanan, a solace which the great body of their followers will not share.

It is not often that a defeated party is left in so solid and strong a position as that which the Republicans in the Union now occupy. They have contested the ground with rare vigor and energy, and, for a new party,,—undisciplined, inexperienced, almost unorganized, surrounded by difficulties and entangled by half-alliances, which brought certain weakness with only a faint promise of compensating strength,—they have certainly achieved very extraordinary results. They have almost consolidated the North,—and we are inclined to believe that their candidate will be found have received a decided plurality of the popular vote of

The Times is the same paper that so highly eulogized Mr. Rayner for his efforts to induce the Fillmore men of Pennsylvania to unite with Fremont. It is an abolition sheet. In striking contrast with the foregoing, we clip the following from the Portland (Maine) Argus. Bear in mind that Mr. Rayner, a Southern Know Nothing, went to Philadelphia to advocate a union between the Fillmore and Fremont men, to defeat such Democrats in the free States as the Editor of the Portland Argus, who "swears eternal enmity to Black Republicans," and who has resolved "to work unceasingly to exterminate the nest of poisonous serpents which it hatches." We would trust the Democrats of Maine, who are thus working and who are thus spoken for by the Argus, long, long before we would such Southern men as Mr. Rayner and those who justify him:

"The vote of Maine against a statesman and patriot like James Buchanan will hereafter, we venture to predict, be a source of shame to her people. It will be pointed at as the melancholy consequence of a wild fanaticism, and few will be willing to acknowledge that they were parties to it.

But Maine stands not alone. Her elder sister, Massachusetts, may well claim to be the 'Virago' State in this senseless folly; for Massachusetts gives to John C. Fremont a majority of fifty-six thousand! So says the Boston Traveller. We yield the honor, or rather the dishonor, to her. Maine no longer 'leads' in infamy. She must give precedence to the State that violates the laws of the land, and incites to open rebellion against the constitutional authorities setts has been the breeding hot-bed of nearly all of the crazy vagaries that have disturbed the peace of so-ciety, and led this country to the verge of disunion. It is most fitting that she should stand out the foremost supporter of the sixteen-starred faction.

There is hope of Maine yet. We have a noble army of true-hearted patriots, forty thousand strong, who will here after rest with their swords in their hands and their armo on. The battle is not ended: this army is not 'annihilated,' as was proudly asserted by Neal Dow. The battle never will end until the State shall be restored to the ranks of the national democracy, and elevated up out of her deep degradation. This army never will be annihilated so long as treason stalks abroad, and the integrity of our glorious retreason stalks abroad, and the integrity of our glorious republic is endangered. Of this our opponents may be well assured. From this day let every friend of the Union in Maine swear eternal enmity to black republicanism, and resolve to work unceasingly to exterminate the nest of poisonous serpents it hatches. Down with it, from Kittery to Aroostook! and NO QUARTER!"

The Presidential Election.

The returns received by tolegraph yesterday, says the Washington Union of Saturday last, only strengthen the confident belief expressed by us in our last issue, that Mr. Buchanan will receive at least 170, probably 174, votes of the electoral college. We stated yesterday that the report originating with Mr. Wentworth, of the Chicago Democrat, that the black Republicans had carried Illinois, was too ab: u d to merit a contradiction. Our faith in the invincibility of the Democracy of Illinois was founded, not upon information of a contradictory character-for so far as we were concerned the telegraph was provokingly silent-but upon a lively recollection of a long and unbroken series of triumphs which they had achieved. We were not surprised, then, when, at a late hour yesterday afternoon, the following despatch from Judge Douglus, addressed to a gentleman in this city, was placed at our dis-

Both branches of the legislature democratic by decisive majorities. The State ticket rendered doubtful by the Fillmore men going with the abolitionists.

The probabilities are that in Wisconsin three black republicans and one democrat have been elected to-

Congress. The State has gone for Fremont. A despatch from Senator Jones, dated at Dubuque, November 6, says: "You may add Iowa to the glorious Buchanan democratic pyramid." It is said that a despatch containing the same gratifying information has been received in this city from Judge Mason, who is now in Iowa.

NEW YORK. We have by telegraph incomplete returns from all the counties in New York but seven. They show that Fremont has received 203,000 votes; Buchanan, 155,000; and Fillmore, 101,000. The official vote will, of course, vary these figures.

OHIO. In regard to the probable result in Ohio, Col. Medary, of the Statesman, pleasantly remarks: Strange as it may seem, we have very few reliable returns from Ohio. Such as we have we publish, but they are not of a sufficient character to justify any calculation as to the probable footingsup of the whole State. The most we can say is, that we are continually reducing the majority against us on the 14th of October.

INDIANA. All the returns from Indiana show democratic gains over Willard's vote. Buchanan's majority in the State will be very large.
PENNSYLVANIA.

We are as yet without complete returns from Pennsylvania. The Pennsylvanian of yesterday morning says :

"The reported majorities from the counties heard from, with a liberal estimate for the counties yet to be heard from, would indicate a plurality for Mr. Buchanan of 80,000 majority; over both, of from 8,000 to 12,000."

Or twenty-one votes more than is necessary for an election. It will be seen that California and Wisconsin are not included in this count, although the probabilities are strongly in favor of Mr. Buchanan carrying one, if not both, of these two States. Assuming, however, that the black republicans have carried Wisconsin, the vote in the electoral college with stand as follows:

Precious Morsels from Kenneth Rayner about Southern Democrats, his own fellow-citizens, "Why, it has got to be a very common thing here in the South for the most true and reliable men among us to be denounced as 'unsound on the slavery question'-as 'tinctured with abolitionism'-by these contemptible party hucksters, THAT COULD BE BOUGHT BY ANY ABOLITIONIST AT THE NORTH, ANY DAY IN THE YEAR, FOR MUCH LESS THAN THE PRICE OF AN ORDINARY NEGRO."-K. Rayner's Letter. "He was not one of those who believed that the Locofocos, at least those whom he knew at home, were any special lovers of our glorious national Union .-Their course proved only too clearly that they were willing to jeopard it all to carry their own BASE PURPOSES, and to secure to themselves the seventy millions of spoils for another four years."-Kenneth Rayner's speech in Philadelphia.

"Mr. Rayner then went on with his exceriation of the Buchanan party. He denounced them, and SHOWED THAT THEY WERE THE SLAVES OF SLAVERY AND roreignes."—Mr. Rayner's Philadelphia speech, reported in the "Sun."

And these men who make that ch Democrats—yes, I have been charged with abolition-ism by men who WOULD JOIN IN A NEGRO IN-SURRECTION ANY NIGHT IN THE YEAR, OF THE NEGROES WOULD AGREE TO GIVE THEM A GOOD PAT office when they should get into power."—Kenneth Rayner's speech in Philadelphia, reported in the "Times."

Kenneth Rayner denounced by honest Fillmore men in Philadelphia.

The Philadelphia News-an old and reliable Fillmore journal-asserts that Mr. Rayner went to Philadelphia to advocate fusion, at the request of black Republican traitors; and that paper dwells at some length and with much bitterness on the discord created by Mr. Rayner in the Fillmore ranks. Indeed, so aroused and enraged were the honest Fillmore men by his conduct, that it seems Mr. Rayner at one time apprehended personal violence at their hands : and in proof of this we copy the following from the Philadelphia Sun of the 4th instant:

"Mr. Rayner's speech was so earnest and truthful that it Three representations with its eloquent sentences.—
Three cheers were given for Rayner and three for the Union Ticket, as he closed and left to address another meeting, saying as he left the room that he believed that if he was altured to night in the streets he would have twenty good and true Americans around him in five minutes to defend him. (Enthusiastic applause.)

The Philadelphia News of 3d November, says: "Mr. Rayner is either ignorant of the effect of the action he recommends, or he is willing to risk the bazard of the die. We remember well when Kenneth Rayner was regarded as the most ultra of the antagonists of abolitionism, and the fanaticism of the Giddings and Garrison school. He denounced these disorganizing doctrines in Congress, in the most violent language, and in terms not strictly within the rules of parliamentary decorum. Now, he is advocating an electoral ticket composed entirely of the friends of Giddings & Co., and the greater part of which will enure to the benefit of the champion of Northern sectionalism, Is Mr. Rayner blinded by ambition? Let him explain these matters to his constituents, for he will be called to a stern account by them. Mr. Rayner overrates his influence, if he supposes that he can induce the Americans of Pennsylvania to follow him in the tortuous path he has chosen

The News was right. Mr. Rayner did "overrate his influence," as is shown by the fact that thousands of the Fillmore men there voted for Buchanan. The Philadelphia News on the 4th says:

"Mr. Rayner was brought here at the instance of the black Republicans, and even this Mr. Millward and his If these gentlemen were the instruments in the hands of that party which seeks the blood of the American organization, so much the worse for them. If, after receiving the honors of the party which elevated Mr. Millward to th honors of the party which elevated Mr. Millward to the dig-nity of a Congressman, he choose to play second fiddle to the Northern section of locofocoism, this is his matter, not ours, at least, until a more fitting occasion.

But why not let Mr. Rayner speak for himself? He aspires to be a leader in the American party, yet on the eve of the most important Presidential election witnessed in the country for years, he abandons the canvass in his own State, and comes here, to do what? to assist that party to which he claims to belong? No! To aid it in elevating Mr. Fillmore, its nominee, to the Presidency? No; but to ask it to prostitute itself before and beneath the forn of an sectional organization, and to ask its members to vote for an electoral ticket which has none others on it but friends of John O. Fremont. If Mr. Rayner can reconcile this conduct with his duty to the American party, let him do it: but we say to him, now and henceforth, that no matter what were his intentions, he came here and cast a firebrand among men who were contending for principles which must live or die with this

If Mr. Rayner is no better politician than to be guilty of If Mr. Rayner is no better politician than to be guilty of such conduct as has characterized his present visit, we confess that he would make but a poor leader. Let him, before coming here to instruct the people of Pennsylvania, look to his own deserted State, and let him go back to the State of North Curolina, if he dare, and tell the people there that the object of his mission into Pennsylvania was to advise the American party to a cohabitation with Black Republicanism and Northern Sectionalism, whose crusade aims the ASSASSIN'S KNIFE AT THE HEART OF NORTH CAR-OLINA, as of every other State south of Mason and Dixon's
